1.	03-01-07	RSR, J Rule Nisi. Call for records. Notice returnable in four weeks. 03-01-2007 WPMP No.121 of 2007 Petitioner is a student of II year B.E. course in the second respondent college. It is his case that though he possesses required number of credits, respondents are not permitting him to attend the classes of the second semester of II year on the ground that he does not have the required percentage of attendance in the first semester of II year. The case of the petitioner is that he attended two seminars on behalf of the second respondent college and hence he is entitled to get credit of attendance for participating in both the seminars. To that effect, he made a representation dated 18-12-2006 to the respondents; however, it is alleged that no action whatsoever is being taken on the said representation. Hence, he approached this court by way of this Writ Petition. Whether the petitioner is entitled for the benefit of credit of attendance during the period in which he has attended the seminars on behalf of the second respondent college is a matter, which is required to be considered by the respondents as per the rules and regulations notified by the university in that regard. As much as the representation filed by the petitioner is pending consideration before the respondents, I direct the respondents to consider the said representation of the petitioner in the light of the rules and regulations framed by the university and pass appropriate orders within a period of one week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, pending further orders. 03-01-2007 N.B.
